James Likely to Be Tried First. Until the expressed preference for separate trials is made a certainty, which probably will not be before court opens at 10 a. m., the prosecution will not announce which man they will try first. The popular belief and that of the defense is that James B. Mc-Namura will be selected.

Will Ask for Change of Judges. Attorney Clarence Darrow, chief counsel for the defense, said tonight no effort to delay the beginning of the case will be made.

"We shall ask for a change of judges," said Mr. Darrow. "We expect it will be denied and the trial will enced."

"Did you have any suspection at that time that Mr. Downing voted corruptive. "Yes, I did," replied the witness. "He was the sort of man that the Lorimer forces were getting right along. He was drinking and was easily influenced." McNamaras Are Ready.

The McNamara brothers, chatting in the corridor of the jail, apparently ex-pected no delay. "We've got to be ready," said John B. McNamara. "It does not make any difference to us which of us is tried first.'

GOVERNOR BALDWIN ON Thinks Taft Is Respected, but Not a Practical Statesman.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 10.—The Atlanta Constitution features a political inter-view with Governor Baldwin. He said: "I think the democrats will carry the country next year.'

country next year."

Asked of his opinion of the probable chances of Woodrow Wilson and Governor Harmon, he replied: "It is too far ahead to choose a man with any certainty as the strengest candidate to put before the people. The democratic party is rich in good men in every quarter of the country, and in every part of the country the people have become very tired of republican profession as compared with republican practice I do not think the republicans will be apt to nominate Mr. Roosevelt again. He has lost ground immensely in the east, and largely in the west, since he went largely in the west, since he went out of office.

"At the present moment Taft has the best chance to be nominated, but one cannot tell what will happen be-tween now and next summer. I think Taft is a strong man, and is every-where respected. In practical states-manship I do not think he is rated quite so highly."
